

RECIPROCAL CLUB AGREEMENT BETWEEN
AKARANA GOLF CLUB (Inc)
AND
WANGANUI GOLF CLUB (Inc)
BELMONT LINKS

EFFECTIVE FROM 1st December 2007

1. A Visiting Member, upon presentation of his/her current club affiliation and membership card (indicating playing status), shall receive equivalent playing rights and privileges for a reduced fee, this being 50% of the affiliated base rate for there class of membership
2. If a member is in residence permanently or casually in the area of the Host Club, these reciprocal rights will apply only for the first two weeks, after which time, it is left to the discretion of the Host Club whether or not to extend the privilege.
3. A visiting member shall be eligible to take part in minor club events and competitions being run on the day subject to payment of the reduced green fee and the competition fee of the day.
4. On production of a suitable letter from his/her Home Club, a member on transfer may be given priority status for admission to membership, provided that such action is acceptable under the Club's admission policy.
5. Visiting members wishing to utilise this arrangement must in the first instance contact the club Manager, Professional and other authorised person to arrange a start time two days prior to the scheduled booking.
6. We the undersigned, being properly authorised persons, commit our Club to this reciprocal arrangement, which shall come into force on the date stated above, and shall remain in force until either Club shall give the other notice of intention to cease.
